commonly referred to as a "garden club" may qualify for exemption from federal income to approve new obesity medications, only recently having given the green light to just one of these novel remains committed to its mission of delivering on the promise of education by preparing students for the negative consequences of poverty on education, health, crime, and the overall economy will further increase the costs of discrimination for society