don't chase him out, as i did recently, before he gets past the first sentence of his oft repeated speech.

John Thune, r-s.d., on Monday introduced the "union bailout prevention act," which would stop the granting of subsidies to offset premium costs for the multi-employer plans held by many union members.